Hi Elizabeth,

It is nice to e-meet you. Could we talk about this issue and meet and confer about the Texas case (per the attached email) sometime later this afternoon, tomorrow morning after 10:00 am your time, or sometime on Friday?

We would oppose the motion you proposed in your email below, but we would be willing to join a motion to stay the Florida arbitrations.

Thanks,

Nico Banks, Esq.

Hi, Nico,

I apologize that we have not met to date. I have taken this matter over as lead Houston counsel for Wealth Assistants and the individual defendants in the various arbitrations and lawsuits.

We intend to file motions asking that the court release funds to pay costs associated with arbitrations in Florida pursuant to the August 26th order.

Please let me know whether you oppose those motions.

Have a great morning!

Best regards,

Beth Revere, Senior Counsel
